Full moon on a silver sea. Shadows throwing into sharp relief the luminous rocks. I sat in the antique rocking chair by the window, a cup of hot Postum in my hand, fascinated by the undulation of great swaths of foam on the ocean, almost fluorescent in the moon-light.

Stillness. Perfect stillness. It is a very great gift, not always available to those who would most appreciate it and would find joy in it, and often not appreciated by those who have it but are uncomfortable with it. External noise is inescapable in many places-traffic on land and in the air, sirens, horns, chain saws, loud voices and, perhaps worst of all, screaming rock music with thundering amplification which makes the very ground shudder.

I think it is possible to learn stillness-but only if it is seriously sought. God tells us, "Be still, and know that I am God" (Ps 46:10, NIV). "In quietness and confidence shall be your strength" (Is 30:15, KJV).

The stillness in which we find God is not superficial, a mere absence of fidgeting or talking. It is a deliberate and quiet attentiveness-receptive, alert, ready. I think of what Jim Elliot wrote in his journal: "Wherever you are, be all there. Live to the hilt every situation you believe to be the will of God"

Word From the Board

In this 70th year of Jim and his companions' Heavenly Homecoming...we continue looking not only to the past but forward this Fall as we reflect on the significance of October in the calendar year. October 8th is not only the day Jim Elliot was born, it is also the day he and Elisabeth made their wedding vows to one another and the very same day 5 years later when Elisabeth stepped into the Waodoni village to live among the same people who had been responsible to hasten Jim's Heavenly Homecoming and place it on the world stage. October 8th marks a pivotal day in history for Christian missions, I cannot begin to tell you how many young people were inspired to reach the World for ✝ in 1956 by Jim and his companions' courageous yet mercy filled desire to share the Gospel with the Waodoni. The EE Foundation is humbled to have stewarded the Elliot legacy these 6 years and grateful to God that we finally all as a Board were able to meet in person here in Little Rock. What a joy to come together with each other, our staff, Elisabeth's family, friends, and associates who have been instrumental as our greatest encouragers and faithful helpmates in our quest to ensure the Elliot legacy continues to bring honor and glory to God for a new generation! Such a joy you can see below as we gathered together to sing "Great is Thy Faithfulness" on our parting!!!
